UNITED STEELWORKERS OF AMERICA

May 13, 1991

DECISION AND ORDER

By Members, Chas. H. Rowan, and B. J. Watt

On February 14, 1991, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 6--RC--10189. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed its answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On April 15, 1991, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On April 18, 1991, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to the election in the representation proceeding. In its response to the Notice to Show Cause, Respondent states that it does not contest the motion.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

Findings of Fact

I. Jurisdiction

The Respondent, Halliburton Services, Inc., a Division of Halliburton Company, a Delaware corporation, has been engaged in providing cementing, fracturing, and acidizing services to companies in the oil and natural gas industry at its facility in Indiana, Pennsylvania, where it annually purchases and receives products, goods, and materials valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. Alleged Unfair Labor Practices

A. The Certification

Following the election held December 20, 1989, the Union was certified on November 20, 1990, as the collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All production and maintenance employees, including bulk material equipment operators, cementing equipment operators, fracturing equipment operators, cementers, fracturing operators, mechanics and dispatchers, employed by the Employer at its Indiana, Pennsylvania, facility; excluding special operators, the safety manager, office clerical employees and guards, professional employees and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

Since December 20, 1990, the Union has requested the Respondent to bargain, and, since January 11, 1991, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

Conclusions of Law

By refusing on and after January 11, 1991, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

Remedy

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. (a) Refusing to bargain with United Steelworkers of America, AFL--CIO--CLC, as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees in the bargaining unit.

(c) Notify the Regional Director in writing within 20 days from the date of this Order what steps the Respondent has taken to comply.
