

Steam Coal Sales, Inc. and United Mine Workers of America. Case 9-CA-29759

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN STEPHENS AND MEMBERS
DEVANEY AND RAUDABAUGH

Upon a charge filed by the United Mine Workers of America, the Union, on July 14, 1992,¹ the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued an amended complaint on May 13, 1993, against Steam Coal Sales, Inc., the Respondent, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act. On June 3, 1993, the Respondent filed an answer admitting the allegations of the amended complaint.

The amended complaint alleges, and the Respondent admits, that it is a party to a collective-bargaining agreement effective from 1988 through February 1, 1993,² and that since January 15, 1992, it has failed to provide appropriate medical insurance and to pay the medical expenses of its unit employees. The Respondent, while admitting these allegations, asserts that its joint venture partners, Island Creek Corporation, Island Creek Coal Company and/or Laurel Run Mining Company are likewise liable for these actions.

On June 14, 1993, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On June 17, 1993, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed no response. The allegations in the motion are therefore undisputed.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

It is well established that Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act prohibits an employer that is a party to a collective-bargaining agreement from modifying the terms and conditions of employment established by that agreement without obtaining the consent of the union. Nick Robilotto, Inc., 292 NLRB 1279 (1989), and cases cited there. The Respondent has admitted that it unilaterally failed to abide by the terms and conditions of employment in the collective-bargaining agreement by failing to pay its unit employees' medical insurance or their medical expenses. Accordingly, the Respondent has admitted all the facts material to a resolution of the unfair labor practice issues raised by the amended complaint.

The Respondent's defense that its joint venture partners are also liable does not constitute an adequate defense to the allegation that it has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act. Further, the General Counsel has not named any of the entities named by the Respondent as its joint venture partners as either respondents or parties in interest in the amended complaint. Therefore, they are not properly a part of this adjudication and the Respondent's request that remedial relief be assessed against them can not be granted.³ Accordingly, because we find the Respondent has not asserted an adequate defense and because there are no material facts in dispute, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

The Respondent, Steam Coal Sales, Inc., and Paybra Mining Company, Inc., constitute, for the reasons stated in paragraph 2(a) of the complaint, a single-integrated business enterprise and a single employer. The Respondent and Paybra are engaged in the mining of coal in the vicinity of Man, West Virginia. During the 12 months preceding issuance of the amended complaint, the Respondent and Paybra, collectively, sold and shipped goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly to Island Creek Coal Company, a nonretail enterprise located within the State of West Virginia. During this same period, Island Creek sold and shipped from its West Virginia facilities goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly to points outside the State of West Virginia.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

The employees of the Respondent describe in article IA of the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement of 1988 constitute a unit appropriate for purposes of collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9(b) of the Act.

Since about December 14, 1990, based on Section 9(a) of the Act, the Union has been the designated exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the unit and since then the Union has been recognized as the representative by the Respondent. This recognition has been embodied in a collective-bargaining agreement (the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement of 1988) between the Respondent and the Union that was effective through February 1, 1993.

Since about January 15, 1992, the Respondent has failed to continue in effect all the terms and conditions of the parties' collective-bargaining agreement by failing to provide appropriate medical insurance and to pay the medical expenses of the unit employees.

The terms and conditions of employment set by the applicable contract provisions are mandatory subjects for the purposes of collective bargaining. The Respondent has engaged in the conduct described above without the Union's consent.

We find that by the conduct described above, the Respondent has unilaterally failed and refused to bargain with the Union in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By unilaterally ceasing to continue in effect all the terms and conditions of the collective-bargaining agreement by failing since January 15, 1992, to provide appropriate medical insurance and to pay the medical expenses of its unit employees, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist and to take certain affirmative action designed to effectuate the policies of the Act.

We shall order the Respondent to abide by all the terms of the collective-bargaining agreement by providing the contractually required medical insurance and by paying the medical expenses of the unit employees which has not been done since January 15, and to make its unit employees whole by reimbursing them for any expenses or losses they incurred as the result of the Respondent's failure to provide the contractually required medical insurance and medical expense payments. See, e.g., Kraft Plumbing & Heating, 252 NLRB 891 fn. 2 (1980), enfd. mem. 661 F.2d 940 (9th Cir. 1981). All such backpay shall be computed in the manner prescribed in Ogle Protection Service, 183 NLRB 682 (1970), enfd. 444 F.2d 502 (6th Cir. 1971). All payments to employees shall be made with interest to be computed in the manner prescribed in New Horizons for the Retarded, 283 NLRB 1173 (1987).
