DECISION AND DIRECTION OF ELECTION

Upon a petition duly filed under Section 9(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, a hearing was held before a hearing officer of the National Labor Relations Board.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 3(b) of the Act, the Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to the undersigned.

Upon the entire record in this proceeding,² the undersigned finds:

¹ The name of the Employer appears as amended at hearing. In its petition, Petitioner also sought to include as the Employer, Act One Personnel Services, which employs temporary employees at the Employer. At hearing, Petitioner stated it is no longer seeking to include Act One Personnel Services as the Employer or to represent employees employed by Act One Personnel Services at the Employer.

² The Employer filed a brief which was carefully considered.

1. The hearing officer's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed.³
2. The Employer is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the Act, and it will effectuate the purposes of the Act to assert jurisdiction herein.
3. The labor organization involved claims to represent certain employees of the Employer.
4. A question affecting commerce exists concerning the representation of certain employees of the Employer within the meaning of Section 9(c)(1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.
5. The following employees of the Employer constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9(b) of the Act:

All full-time and regular part-time production and maintenance employees, including EOC associates, TOC associates, and shipping and receiving employees, employed by the Employer at its facilities located at 1857 Enterprise Drive and 1885 Enterprise Drive, Rochester Hills, Michigan; but excluding prototype techs, lab techs, quality techs, temporary employees, team leaders, office clerical employees, professional employees, confidential employees, and guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

³ At hearing, the parties stipulated to exclude team leaders from the appropriate unit because they are supervisors. Despite this stipulation, the Employer would not enter into an election agreement because it wanted to make a record and, based on that record, obtain a finding regarding the status of team leaders. The hearing officer precluded testimony on the issue, but allowed the Employer to make an offer of proof. The hearing officer did not rule on the offer of proof. The hearing officer properly precluded testimony on the supervisory status of team leaders. The parties stipulated, on a proper factual basis, that the team leaders are supervisors. There was no reason to delay the proceedings by taking testimony on the issue as there was no dispute. See, e.g., Jersey Shore Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, 325 NLRB 603 (1998). The offer of proof is rejected.

Those eligible shall vote as set forth in the attached Direction of Election.

Dated at Detroit, Michigan, this 3rd day of September 2004.
