MORI RUBIN SELECTED AS DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY OF NLRB'S REGION 31 OFFICE IN LOS ANGELES, CA

National Labor Relations Board General Counsel Ronald Meisburg announced his selection of Ms. Mori Rubin to serve as Deputy Regional Attorney of the Agency's Region 31 Regional Office in Los Angeles, CA. Ms. Rubin had been serving as a Supervisory Field Attorney in Region 31 prior to her appointment. In her new position, she will assist Regional Director James McDermott in the administration and enforcement of the National Labor Relations Act in Los Angeles and six other counties in Southern California.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg commented:

Mori Rubin has distinguished herself as an attorney and a leader throughout her 27-year career in Region 31. She has earned an outstanding reputation for her exceptional analytical skills and her talent as a litigator, which will be a great asset in her new position as Deputy Regional Attorney.

A Summa Cum Laude graduate of UCLA, Ms. Rubin earned a B.A. degree in economics with Phi Beta Kappa honors in 1977. She attended Boalt Hall Law School at the University of California Berkeley, where she served as the Research and Reviews Editor for the Industrial Relations Law Journal (now called the Berkeley Journal of Employment and Labor Law). Ms. Rubin started her career with the Agency in October 1980 as a Field Attorney in Region 31. She became a Supervisory Field Attorney in May 2007.
