Re: Allied Waste Services
Case No. 16-RD-1580

Dear Ms. Parsons:

The above-captioned case, petitioning for an investigation and decertification under Section 9(c) of the National Labor Relations Act has been carefully investigated and considered.

As a result of the investigation, it appears that further proceedings are not warranted at this time. The investigation revealed that, on November 7, 2007, the Regional Director approved an informal settlement agreement between the Employer and Union involved in the instant petition. The informal settlement agreement was a result of unfair labor practice charges filed by the Union. Pursuant to existing Board law, the Union enjoys, at a minimum, six months of bargaining following the Regional Director's approval of said agreement before its status as representative may be questioned. The petition at issue was filed on March 6, 2008, almost two months short of the six month minimum. Therefore, I am dismissing the petition.

A review of this action may be obtained by filing a request with the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D.C. See attached Form NLRB-4916 for instructions for filing such request for review.

In the Regional Office's initial correspondence, the parties were advised that the National Labor Relations Board has expanded the list of permissible documents that may be electronically filed with its offices. If a party wishes to file one of the documents which may now be filed electronically, please refer to the Attachment supplied with the Regional Office's initial correspondence for guidance in doing so. Guidance for E-filing can also be found on the National Labor Relations Board website at www.nlr.gov. On the home page of the website, select the E-Gov tab and click on E-Filing. Then select the NLRB office for which you wish to E-File your documents. Detailed E-filing instructions explaining how to file the documents electronically will be displayed.

Sincerely,

Martha Kinard
Regional Director
