Authority for maintenance of the system:

These records document employee actions and performance appraisals.

1. Individuals who have a need for the information in connection with the processing of an appeal, grievance, or complaint.
2. A Member of Congress or to a Congressional staff member in response to an inquiry of the Congressional office made at the written request of the constituent about whom the record is maintained.

3. Officials of labor organizations recognized under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 71, when disclosure is not prohibited by law; and the data is normally maintained by the Agency in the regular course of business and is reasonably available and necessary for full and proper discussion, understanding and negotiation of subjects within the scope of collective bargaining. The foregoing shall have the identical meaning as 5 U.S.C.
7114(b)(4) as interpreted by the FLRA and the courts.

4. An arbitrator to resolve disputes under a negotiated grievance arbitration procedure.

5. Other agencies, offices, establishments, and authorities, whether Federal, State, or local, authorized or charged with the responsibility to investigate, litigate, prosecute, enforce, or implement a statute, rule, regulation, or order, where the record or information, by itself or in connection with other records or information, indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether criminal, civil, administrative, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto.

6. The Department of Justice for use in litigation when either:

(a) The NLRB or any component thereof; (b) any employee of the NLRB in his or her official capacity; (c) any employee of the NLRB in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee; or (d) the United States Government, where the NLRB determines that litigation is likely to affect the NLRB or any of its components, is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the use of such records by the Department of Justice is deemed by the NLRB to be relevant and necessary to the litigation, provided that in each case the Agency determines that disclosure of the records to the Department of Justice is a use of the information contained in the records that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

7. A court, magistrate, administrative tribunal, or other adjudicatory body in the course of presenting evidence or argument, including disclosure to opposing counsel or witness in the course of civil discovery, litigation, or settlement negotiations, or in connection with criminal law proceedings, when: (a) The NLRB or any component thereof; or (b) any employee of the NLRB in his or her official capacity; (c) any employee of the NLRB in his or her individual capacity, where the NLRB has agreed to represent the employee; or (d) the United States Government, is a party to litigation or has interest in such litigation, and determines that such disclosure is relevant and necessary to the litigation and that the use of such records is therefore deemed by the NLRB to be for a purpose that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.
Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies:

None.
