

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

Organization and Functions

The National Labor Relations Board is an independent agency created by the National Labor Relations Act, enacted July 5, 1935 (49 Stat. 449; 29 U.S.C. 151–166); as amended by the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947, enacted June 23, 1947 (61 Stat. 136; 29 U.S.C. 151–166); as amended by an Act of October 21, 1951 (65 Stat. 601; 29 U.S.C. 158, 159, 168); as amended by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959, enacted September 14, 1959 (73 Stat. 519; 29 U.S.C. 141, et seq.); and as amended by an Act of July 26, 1974 (88 Stat. 395–397; 29 U.S.C. 152, et seq.). The responsibilities and functions of the Agency under the statutes are carried out through an organization directed and controlled by the National Labor Relations Board and its General Counsel, who, in addition to independent authority under the statute, exercises other authority by delegation from the Board.

PART 201—DESCRIPTION OF ORGANIZATION

SUBPART A—DESCRIPTION OF CENTRAL ORGANIZATION

Sec. 201 The Board. The Board, composed of five Members, has its central and principal office in Washington, D.C. Each of the Members is appointed by the President, with the approval of the Senate, for a term of 5 years. One Member is designated by the President to serve as Chairman of the Board. The Board is created by virtue of the provisions of the National Labor Relations Act, 49 Stat. 449, as amended by the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947, 61 Stat. 136, and the Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act, 1959, 73 Stat. 519.

The Board has two principal functions under the National Labor Relations Act: (1) The prevention of statutorily defined unfair labor practices on the part of employers and labor organizations or the agents of either, and (2) the conduct of secret-ballot elections among employees in appropriate collective-bargaining units to determine whether or not they desire to be represented by a labor organization.

The Board is further empowered by the Act:

To conduct secret-ballot elections among employees who have been covered by a union-shop agreement, when requested by 30 percent of the employees, to determine whether or not they wish to revoke their union's authority to make such agreements.

To determine in cases involving jurisdictional disputes which of the competing groups of workers is to be assigned the work task involved.

To conduct secret-ballot elections among employees in national emergency situations.

The Board exercises full and final authority over the Office of the Executive Secretary and the Office of the Solicitor. The Board appoints administrative law judges and, subject to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act and section 4(a) of the National Labor Relations Act, exercises authority over the Division of Judges. Each Board Member exercises full and final authority over a staff of legal counsel, each staff being under the immediate supervision of the chief counsel of the respective Board Member.

The Board, with the General Counsel, approves the budget, opens new offices as deemed necessary, and appoints Regional Directors and officers in charge.

The Board establishes and publishes the Agency's Rules and Regulations and Statements of Procedure.

Sec. 201.1 The Board's staff. The Board's staff consists (in addition to its chief counsel and legal counsel referred to in sec. 201, above) of the Office of the Executive Secretary, the Office of the Solicitor, and the Division of Judges.

Sec. 201.1.1 Office of the Executive Secretary. The Executive Secretary, as the chief administrative and judicial management officer of the Board, represents the Board in dealing with parties to cases, and communicates on behalf of the Board with labor organizations, employers, employees, Members of Congress, other agencies, and the public; receives, docket, and acknowledges all formal documents filed with the Board; issues and serves on the parties to cases all Board Decisions and Orders; and certifies copies of all documents which are a part of the Board's files or records.

Sec. 201.1.2 Office of the Solicitor. The Solicitor is the Board's chief legal officer and advises the Board on questions of law and policy; adoption, revision, or rescission of Rules and Regulations and Statements of Procedure; pending legislation amending or affecting the Act; litigation affecting the Board, etc. The Office of the Solicitor drafts advisory opinions and declaratory orders for the Board concerning whether the Board would assert jurisdiction in a particular case.

Sec. 201.1.3 Division of Judges. The Chief Administrative Law Judge supervises the operations of this division. Administrative law judges are responsible for the conduct of all hearings and for the preparation of all administrative law judges' decisions in unfair labor practice cases. The Chief Administrative Law Judge has final authority to designate administrative law judges who conduct hearings and make rulings; to assign dates for hearings presided over by administrative law judges; and to rule upon requests for extensions of time within which to file briefs, proposed findings, and conclusions.

Sec. 201.1.4 Division of Information. The Information Office coordinates the Agency’s information and public relations programs by conducting briefings and disseminating information of Agency activities through all news media and to companies, unions, law firms, academic groups, and others; and arranges for distribution of decisions and summaries of decisions.

Sec. 202 The General Counsel. The General Counsel is appointed by the President, with the approval of the Senate, for a term of 4 years. The General Counsel derives specific authority for some functions of the office from the provisions of section 3(d) of the National Labor Relations Act, and derives certain other authority by delegation from the Board (20 Fed. Reg. 2175, as amended at 23 Fed. Reg. 6966, 24 Fed. Reg. 6666, and 26 Fed. Reg. 3911). By virtue of these combined authorities, the General Counsel exercises general supervision over attorneys employed by the Board (other than administrative law judges, legal counsel to Board Members, the Executive Secretary, and the Solicitor), and over the officers and employees in the Regional Offices. The General Counsel has final authority, on behalf of the Board, in respect to the investigation of charges and issuance of complaints under section 10 and in respect to the prosecution of such complaints before the Board; prosecutes, on behalf of the Board, injunction proceedings pursuant to section 10(e) and 10(j) of the Act; handles court of appeals proceedings to enforce or review Board orders, other miscellaneous court litigation, and efforts to obtain compliance with Board orders; and is responsible for the processing by field personnel of representation petitions under section 9 of the Act and jurisdictional dispute cases under section 10(k), and in the conduct of employee referenda under sections 209(b) and 203(c) of the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947.

The Deputy General Counsel is vested with the authority to speak and act for the General Counsel in all phases of the responsibilities of the office to the full extent permitted by law and is responsible for overall coordination of the General Counsel’s organization. The Deputy General Counsel position is a “first assistant” for purposes of section 3345(a)(1) of the Federal Vacancies Reform Act. References to the General Counsel hereinafter may refer to either the General Counsel or Deputy General Counsel collectively.

Sec. 202.1 The General Counsel’s Washington Staff. The General Counsel’s Washington staff, reporting to the General Counsel and the Deputy General Counsel, consists of four main divisions: Division of Operations Management, Division of Advice, Division of Enforcement Litigation, and Division of Administration.

Sec. 202.1.1 Division of Operations Management. The Associate General Counsel for Operations Management assists in the coordination and integration of all operations in Washington and of Washington operations with the field offices; develops systematic methods for the integration of case processing activities in all field and Washington operational units and for the implementation of General Counsel and Board policies, including time and quality standards for case processing at all stages; and is responsible for continuing liaison with field offices and for supervising and coordinating both substantive and administrative phases of their operations.

Sec. 202.1.2 Division of Advice. The Associate General Counsel for Advice is responsible for legal research on and analysis of broad areas of labor law administration, for legal advice to Regional Directors on all unfair labor practice cases involving novel or difficult legal issues, including questions involving mandatory or discretionary injunction proceedings, for litigating injunction cases on appeal from a district court adjudication, for legal information retrieval systems, and for analyses and digests to be used by both the Agency staff and the public.

Sec. 202.1.3 Division of Enforcement Litigation. The Associate General Counsel for Enforcement Litigation is responsible for all Agency litigation in the United States Courts of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the United States, whether within the General Counsel's statutory authorization or delegated by the Board, including contempt litigation and enforcement and review of Decisions and Orders of the Board, and is also responsible for miscellaneous litigation in Federal and state courts to protect the Agency's processes and functions.

The Office of Appeals is another principal part of the Division of Enforcement Litigation. This office reviews appeals from Regional Directors' refusals to issue complaints in unfair labor practice cases and recommends the action to be taken thereon by the General Counsel. Pursuant to request, the Director of the office may also hear informal oral presentations in Washington of argument by counsel or other representatives of the parties in support of, or in opposition to, the appeals.

Sec. 202.1.4 Division of administration. The Director of Administration is responsible generally for the administrative management, support services, and fiscal functions of the General Counsel. These activities are carried out with the assistance of branches dealing with financial management, personnel, facilities and services, data systems, management and audit, security and safety, and library services. These functions, as applicable, are also performed on behalf of the Board and its Members.

SUBPART B—DESCRIPTION OF FIELD ORGANIZATION

Sec. 203 Regional Offices. There are 33 Regional Offices through which the Board conducts its business. Certain of the Regions have Subregional Offices or Resident Offices in addition to the central Regional Office. The areas constituting the Regions and the location of the Regional, Subregional, and Resident Offices are set forth in an appendix hereto. Each Regional Office staff is headed by a Regional Director appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the General Counsel and includes a Regional Attorney, Assistant to the Regional Director, field attorneys, field examiners, and clerical staff. Each Subregional Office is headed by an officer in charge appointed in the same manner as the Regional Directors. Each Resident Office is headed by a Resident Officer.

Sec. 203.1 Regional Directors. Under the general supervision of the Office of the General Counsel, the Regional Directors supervise a staff of attorneys and field examiners in the processing of representation, unfair labor practice, and jurisdictional dispute cases. The Regional Directors are empowered to issue notices of hearing in representation cases; issue complaints in unfair labor practice cases; conduct elections pursuant to agreement of the parties or direct elections pursuant to the decision-making authority delegated by the Board to them under section 3(b) of the Act, and issue certification of representatives or certify the results of elections where appropriate; conduct employee referenda under section 209(b) and 203(c) of the Labor Management Relations Act; obtain settlement of unfair labor practice charges; obtain compliance with administrative law judge, Board, and court decisions; investigate and report on, or decide, objections to elections and challenges to determinative ballots; and otherwise act in behalf of the General Counsel in the discharge of the statutory and delegated functions of that office.

In addition, Regional Directors may initiate and prosecute in the district courts injunctions under section 10(l) of the Act. They also have authority to process petitions for unit clarification, for amendment of certification, and for rescission of a labor organization's authority to make an agreement pursuant to the proviso of section 8(a)(3).

Regional Directors are also responsible for the administrative management of their offices and of any Subregional and Resident Offices in their Regions and make initial determinations of FOIA requests for materials in their custody.

Sec. 203.2 Regional Attorneys. The Regional Attorneys are the principal legal advisers to the Regional Directors and, as the chief legal officers in the Regions, exercise supervisory authority over office attorneys and field examiners in various aspects of their work. They may exercise any authority given attorneys and field examiners in the Regions.

Sec. 203.3 Assistants to the Regional Directors. The Assistants to the Regional Directors are responsible for overall supervision and coordination of investigations and compliance, exercise supervisory authority over office attorneys and field examiners in various aspects of their work, and provide assistance to the Regional Director with respect to various administrative functions.

Sec. 203.4 Field attorneys. The field attorneys are charged in general with the duty of performing all necessary legal services for the Regional Directors in the Regions. They are directly responsible to the Regional Attorneys, and through them to the Regional Directors, for performance of these services. Under the direction of the Regional Attorneys, they:

(a) Investigate petitions concerning the representation of employees (including the taking of secret ballots of employees) in accordance with section 9(c) of the National Labor Relations Act;

(b) Conduct hearings in proceedings under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act and section 7(b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(c) Investigate charges of unfair labor practices under section 8 of the Act;

(d) Appear and participate as counsel in Board hearings and, when designated, in other Board litigation and proceedings;

(e) Prosecute any inquiry necessary to the functions of the General Counsel, have access to and the right to copy evidence, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence;

(f) Perform all necessary acts required of them in connection with the foregoing and the published Rules and Regulations of the Board.

Sec. 203.5 Field examiners. The field examiners in the Regional Offices are directly responsible to the Regional Directors and work under their direction. Essentially, they:

(a) Investigate petitions concerning the representation of employees, in accordance with section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act, and conduct secret-ballot elections where such procedure is required under the Act;

(b) Investigate charges of unfair labor practices under section 8 of the Act, have access to and the right to copy evidence, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence;

(c) Conduct hearings in proceedings under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act and section 7(d) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(d) Perform all necessary acts required of them in connection with the foregoing and the published Rules and Regulations of the Board.

Sec. 203.6 Officers in Charge and Resident Officers. The officer in charge of a Subregional Office or the Resident Officer and, under his direction, supervises the processing of cases arising within the geographical area of the office. Under special delegation from the General Counsel, an officer in charge may be authorized to exercise the functions of the Regional Director, subject to statutory limitations.

Effective date. This amended Description of Organization shall be effective as of June 14, 1979.
