Welcome to NLRB E-Filing

What is E-File?

"E-File" is the system for submitting documents electronically pertaining to a case or inquiry pending before the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). The E-File system is a quick and easy way to filed documents with the NLRB.

Do I need to file multiple copies of documents that I file electronically?

There is no need to file multiple copies of documents that you file electronically.

Where can I access my previously E-Filed documents?

You may access previously E-Filed documents through the My Account Portal (MAP) for 90 days from date of E-Filing.

What documents can I E-File?

Most documents can be filed with the NLRB using the E-Filing system, including Charges and Petitions. The full terms and rules are available here.

For consolidated cases, do I need to E-File my document separately under each case number?

No, the document should be E-Filed solely under the lead (i.e., lowest) case number.

Is technical assistance available after business hours?

Agency personnel are not available after the close of regular business hours to assist parties with E-Filing. If you have difficulty after hours, you may try using a different computer. Temporarily removing pop-up blockers and changing your spam filter to allow receipt of messages from nlrb.gov may expedite receiving a notification that your E-Filing has been received. A technical failure by the Agency's E-Filing system may excuse a late filing, but end user problems will not. If end user problems cannot be corrected before the 11:59 p.m. E-Filing deadline, the subsequent late filing will not be excused. Examples of end user problems include trouble with the telephone lines, the user's internet service provider, hardware, software, users failing to understand or follow E-Filing instructions, or rejection of the transmission because the document contains a virus.

What is the deadline for E-Filing? Can I request an extension?

E-Filed documents must be filed using the Agency's website before midnight in the time zone of the receiving office. Requests for extension of time are made by completing an online form. You can request an extension of time through the NLRB's E-Filing System by clicking here. Please note that successful submission of a request for an extension of time through the Agency's E-Filing system does not mean that your request has been granted. The office receiving the request will contact you directly to confirm whether the request has been granted or denied.

What if I have a question not on this list?

You may send questions not addressed here to webteam@nlrb.gov.

What if I receive more than one Account Number?

If you receive more than one Account Number, you should add those to your online My Account Portal profile as well. In your Profile, enter the additional account number in the "Add Accounts and Addresses" box and then select the Add button. The page will refresh with the additional account information.

What is E-Service?

"E-Service" is the electronic service of Board and ALJ decisions and orders on parties. Parties who register for E-Service will receive, immediately upon posting of the Board's daily E-Docket on its website, an e-mail constituting formal notice of the Board's or Judge's decision and an electronic link to the decision. E-Service notifications will be sent at the close of the business day from NLRB headquarters in Washington, D.C. (5:00 p.m. Eastern Time). Board and ALJ decisions will not be mailed to parties who sign up for E-Service.

When documents are electronically-filed in a case, the NLRB sends a courtesy e-mail notification to other parties in the case who have registered to receive electronic service of Board and ALJ Decisions. The e-mail provides a link to the documents as a courtesy notification only; it does not constitute service of the document by the filing party pursuant to Board Rules & Regulations Sections 102.114(a) or 102.114(i). In addition, this e-mail indicates only that the document has been E-Filed with the Agency. It does not constitute a determination that the document has been accepted by the Agency as meeting the requirements for filing. In the event the document being E-Filed is required to be served on another party to a proceeding, the other party must be served by e-mail, if possible. If the other party does not have the ability to receive electronic service, that party must be notified by telephone of the substance of the transmitted document and a copy of the document must be served by personal service no later than the next day, by overnight delivery service, or, with the permission of the party receiving the document, by facsimile transmission. See Sec. 102.114(a) and (i) of the Board's Rules and Regulations.

If you have not registered for E-Service, and wish to do so, you should log into the NLRB My Account Portal and select the checkbox that says “I consent to accept formal service of documents electronically from the NLRB.”. See the FAQ “How do I sign in to the NLRB My Account Portal?” for information regarding logging into My Account.

and websites. With a login.gov account, you can sign into multiple government websites, including the NLRB public website, with the same email address and password.

Why is NLRB using login.gov?

login.gov uses two-factor authentication, and stronger passwords, that meet National Institute of Standards of Technology requirements for secure validation and verification. By using login.gov, you’ll get an extra layer of security to help protect your My Account profile against password compromises.

How do I sign in to the NLRB My Account Portal?

To sign-in to the NLRB My Account Portal you must have a login.gov account. If you do not already have a login.gov account, you must create one. This is a one-time step. For help in creating a new login.gov account click here for more information.

After providing your login.gov credentials you will be asked to enter an Account Number and the email address associated with the Account. This information is available in the email notification you received after you submitted a charge/petition or at the time that you e-filed documents in support of your charge/petition.

You will need to use your login.gov email address, password and the one-time security code every time you want to sign into the My Account Portal.

What if I already have a login.gov account?

If you already have a login.gov account, you do not need to create a second one. Use your existing login.gov email address and password, plus the one-time security code to sign into the NLRB My Account Portal.

Can I share a login.gov account with another person?

No. Each person needs his/her own login.gov account. Each person must set up his/her own login.gov account, with their own email address (not an email that you share with someone else).
