2. Basis of the Charge (set forth a clear and concise statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practices) Starting on June 17, 2019 and consistently thereafter through the date of this charge, Painters District Council 14 started picketing Level Construction, Inc. for allegedly failing to pay area standards at a jobsite located at 15 West Washington Street, Chicago, IL. Level Construction is the general contractor and does not employ any tradespeople or painters/taper at the jobsite. Painters District Council 14 has made no effort to determine if Level Construction pays area standard wages, and has been told that Level Construction does not employ any labor at this jobsite. The purpose of this picket was to force Level Construction to cease doing business with non-union subcontractors. Further, on July 12, 2019, Painters District Council 14 along with other building trades caused an alley leading to the loading dock area to be blocked not allowing deliveries to be made to the building.
