2. Basis of the Charge (set forth a clear and concise statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practices) For work in (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) 2018 performed under the union's SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement, I submitted to SAG-AFTRA NY four grievances pertaining to late payment charges. I cited explicit CBA language to validate my grievances. SAG-AFTRA's representatives (b) (6), (b) (7)(C), et al., provided different explanations of why they would not pursue the grievances: citing "past practice," that the contract language was "out of date," and that the contract language was "obsolete." These positions and others were not valid, were irrational, and attempted to mislead me about the actual language in the current agreement ratified in 2017. The SAG-AFTRA representatives did not provide documentation or CBA language to support their reasons. SAG-AFTRA New York representatives unfairly rejected my grievances using arbitrary and irrational reasoning, founding my charge for violation of duty of fair representation.
